(54) ELECTRONIC PRICE LABEL SYSTEM, AND ITS GROUPING METHOD

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To easily use an electronic price label in the case of sales promotion for a commodity not put on a standard merchandise display rack.
 SOLUTION: This invention provides a device for grouping electronic price labels(EPL) 22A to form an electronic price label system containing plural groups of the electronic price labels 22A, and a group managing method for facilitating a group definition, assignment of the labels 22A to the groups, assignment of items to the labels 22A and assignment of prices to the items. The device is constituted to contain a frame member 222 forming plural partitions 226 arranged to store the labels 22A, a commodity introducing sheet 224 containing an opening part 274 for exposing a display with the labels 22A and fitted to the frame member 22, and a commodity introducing sheet holder 223 for holding the commodity introducing sheet 224 to the frame member 222.
